Senator Jim Brulte

SENATOR JIM BRULTE TO SPEAK TO RIVER CITY

By Fred Hildebrand

We are fortunate to have Jim Brulte return to River City for a 10th appearance on October 17th. He has been one of our favorite speakers. His knowledge and insight into the political process over the years has been quite amazing. He will take questions and give us his views on the upcoming election. Do not miss this opportunity to hear Jim speak without the mantle of political office.

We will meet at Channel 6, KVIE, for a Social Hour at 6:00 P.M. The General Meeting will begin at 7:00 P.M., promptly. Our speaker will be introduced shortly thereafter.

Jim Brulte served 14 years in the California State Legislature, most recently as Senate Republican Leader, before leaving office to join California Strategies. During that time he developed a national reputation as a dynamic leader, and prior to the election of Governor Schwarzenegger, was described as "arguably the most powerful elected Republican in California."

He was recently appointed by President Bush to serve as a Member of the Board of Visitors of the United States Naval Academy. He was also appointed by Governor Schwarzenegger as a member of the Performance Review Committee.

Brulte joined California Strategies in 2004 as a partner and heads the Inland Empire office, the region where he grew up and later represented in the Legislature.

During his tenure in office, Brulte focused his efforts on education, regulatory reform, crime reduction and common-sense legislation to improve California's business climate. His measures to reform the workers' compensation and welfare systems have saved billions of dollars for both California taxpayers and California's business community.

In addition to his political expertise, Brulte is also an expert on fiscal issues and was the GOP's lead negotiator for California's 80+ billion dollar budget negotiations.

Brulte graduated with a B.A. from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. In 1974, Brulte joined the California Air National Guard where he was later honored as "Outstanding Airman of the Year" for the United States and its territories.

According to Mark DiCamillo, director of the Field Poll, about 47 percent of the 5.2 million votes in the June primary were cast by absentee ballot and absentee voters could outnumber those who go to their polling places this November.

So if you haven't already volunteered to help get out the vote now is the time to volunteer and help reelect Governor Schwarzenegger and the other members of our Republican Team.

Republican Endorsed Candidates for Non-Partisan Office

The Sacramento County Republican Party endorsed non-partisan Republican candidates at its September meeting.

Early in the year an Endorsement Committee, made up of five members of the County Republican Central Committee, were elected by the entire membership of the Central Committee. The Endorsement Committee then designed a questionnaire and mailed it to all of the non-partisan candidates along with a cover letter telling the candidates to return the questionnaire if they wanted to interview with the committee to obtain endorsement.

The members of the Endorsement Committee came from each of the five supervisor districts. Amber Schalansky-Fretwell was appointed to fill a vacancy in the first district when Tim King pass away. Jeff Scott was elected from the second district, Robert Evans was elected from the third district, Craig MacGlashan was elected from the fourth district (and served as Chairman of the committee) and George Bradshaw was elected from the fifth district.

The Endorsement Committee spent a great deal of time reviewing the returned questionnaires and devoted three weekends to interviewing candidates seeking the Republican Party endorsement. Four members of the Endorsement Committee are members of Republicans of River City.

A FEMALE JOKE

It has long been contended that there are male jokes and there are female jokes. And there are unisex jokes. Here is a joke I consider a true female joke. I offer it to you in the hopes that women will love it and men will pass it along to a woman who will love it.

A woman was sitting at a bar enjoying an after work cocktail with her girlfriends when an exceptionally tall, handsome, extremely sexy middle-aged man entered. He was so striking that the woman could not take her eyes off him. The young-at-heart man noticed her overly attentive stare and walked directly toward her. (As all men will.) Before she could offer her apologies for so rudely staring, he leaned over and whispered to her, "I'll do anything, absolutely anything, that you want me to do, no matter how kinky, for $20 on one condition." Flabbergasted, the woman asked what the condition was.

The man replied, "You have to tell me what you want me to do in just three words."

The woman considered his proposition for a moment, and then slowly removed a $20 bill from her purse, which she pressed into the man's hand along with her address. She looked deeply into his eyes, and slowly and meaningfully said:

"Clean my house."

Governor Schwarzenegger Urges Californians To Support Historic Plan To Re-Build California

October 3, 2006

Sacramento, CA – Today, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, joined by bipartisan local leaders and elected officials from all over California , urged Californians to support the historic $37.3 billion plan to re-build California.

“California has always been an economic, environmental, and technological leader and this November we have the historic opportunity to make sure we continue this trend by building the roads, schools, levees, and housing of the future,” said Governor Schwarzenegger.

California has a decades-old infrastructure built to accommodate 25 million people. Today, the state has a population of more than 37 million people and is expected to grow to 50 million by 2020.

“It's clear that California needs more classrooms, wider roads, stronger levees and more affordable housing,” said Maria Alegria, mayor pro tem of Pinole and president of the League of California Cities. “It is inspiring how Governor Schwarzenegger and legislators on both sides of the aisle worked together to take comprehensive approach to our state's future that is both bold and fiscally responsible. It is a good investment for California's future.”

“This is exactly the vision we need,” said Danny Curtin, director of the California Conference of Carpenters. “Now, it’s time for the voters to say yes, we need to make our investment for this generation so that the next generation has something to build on.”

“It's a great thing that Governor Schwarzenegger has achieved with the Legislature -- they put together the best possible thinking in addressing our state's infrastructure needs,” said Los Angeles County Sheriff Lee Baca.

This $37.3 billion plan to build the infrastructure that will keep the economy moving and support California's growing population will come before voters on the November 7th ballot in the form of five initiatives: Propositions 1A, 1B, 1C, 1D, and 1E. These measures provide the following resources for infrastructure investment:

Proposition 1A – Constitutionally protects Proposition 42 funding for transportation projects to ensure California invests in its roads annually.

Proposition 1B – Dedicates $19.9 billion to repair and build roads, reduce congestion, improve bridge safety, expand public transit, and improve port security.

Proposition 1C – Provides $2.85 billion toward giving more Californians the opportunity to own their own home.

Proposition 1D – Invests $10.4 billion into California schools and universities to build classrooms and reduce overcrowding, construct more charter schools, expand career technical education, and ensure school buildings are safe.

Proposition 1E – Commits nearly $4.1 billion to repair and maintain levees and improve the flood control systems so that California 's communities, water supply, and farms are protected.
